September 2019
Employee of the Month
Jen Knisely

Jen has worked as a Social Studies teacher at L'Anse Area Schools for the past 11 years. She was nominated for Employee of the Month by a student for 'being so incredibly kind' and taking extra time to help the student stay caught up on work that she missed when she was sick. Jen's kind attitude is also very evident in her relations with staff members. She gives of her time to mentor new teachers, serve on the Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports Team and the District Technology Team. She has also just recently taken on the role of Student Council Advisor. She is always willing to help other teachers with technology issues and is a leader for Social Studies Department meetings and Grade Level Meetings. Jen's kindness and positive attitude toward her students and co-workers makes her an outstanding role model and we are fortunate to have her at LAS!
